STATEMENT OF THE CASE

3 On May 7, 2008, a federal grand jury in the Southern District of California returned a one-count
4 Indictment charging defendant Ricardo Lopez ("Defendant") with Possession of Marijuana with Intent
5 to Distribute, in violation of 21 U.S.C. §841(a)(1). On May 8, 2008, Defendant was arraigned on the 6 Indictment and entered a plea of not guilty

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On April 24, 2008, at approximately 1:30 a.m., Border Patrol Agent Recinos was performing his official duties at the Highway 86 Checkpoint, near Westmorland, California. At that time, a 2003 orange Freightliner tractor trailer truck approached the inspection area. Agent Recinos queried the driver, later identified as Ricardo Lopez, as to his citizenship. During this time, Agent Recinos observed that Lopez was answering the questions nervously and was avoiding eye contact with him. Agent Recinos then asked Lopez what he was carrying in the semi-trailer. Lopez told Agent Recinos he was carrying a rejected load from Yuma, Arizona to Fontana, California. Lopez also told Agent Recinos that he resides in Fontana, California. Agent Recinos asked Lopez if he had a manifest for the load and if the trailer was sealed. Lopez informed Agent Recinos that he did not have a manifest and that the trailer was not sealed. Agent Recinos then obtained consent from Lopez to look inside the trailer. Lopez was sent to secondary inspection for further interview and inspection.

20 While in secondary inspection, Border Patrol Agents Avitia and Garcia met Lopez at the rear 21 of the trailer and identified themselves as Border Patrol Agents. As Lopez was walking to the rear of 22 the trailer he was on his cellular telephone. Agent Garcia asked Lopez to hang up the telephone so that 23 he could conduct the investigation. While at the back of the trailer, Agent Garcia smelled an 24 overwhelming odor of laundry detergent. Agent Garcia asked Lopez what was inside the trailer. Lopez
25 told Agent Garcia that he had water bottles in the trailer. Lopez said that he had taken the trailer loaded 26 with Arrowhead Water to Yuma, Arizona, a couple of days ago and that some of the pallets tiled and 27 spilled. Because of this, they rejected the load.

1 Agent Garcia observed a green seal #5048521 attached to the trailer door. Agent Garcia asked 2 Lopez for the manifest of the load. Lopez provided Agent Garcia with a manifest dated April 10, 2008.
3 When Agent Garcia told Lopez that the manifest was old, Lopez ripped the paper out of Agent Garcia's
4 hands and walked towards the cab of the truck. When inside the cab of the truck, Agent Garcia observed 5 that Lopez was extremely nervous. Lopez was searching in the door panels, under the bed, inside the 6 glove box and in the overhead compartments of the cab for a manifest or other paperwork. While 7 searching the cab, Lopez used the compress air to clean sunflower seeds from the floor. Agent Garcia
8 asked Lopez where he was coming from and where he was going. Lopez told Agent Garcia that he was 9 coming from Yuma, Arizona and driving to Fontana, California.

10 Due to Lopez's behavior, Agent Garcia asked him to step out of the vehicle. Agent Garcia asked 11 Lopez if he could look inside the trailer. Lopez gave Agent Garcia consent to look inside the trailer. In 12 addition, Agent Garcia informed Lopez that he would provide Lopez with a CBP seal and a form to 13 document that United States Border Patrol had opened the seal. Lopez voluntarily gave Agent Garcia 14 consent to open the trailer. Agents Avitia and Garcia walked back to the vehicle with Lopez. Lopez put 15 his hands in his pockets and was looking down at the ground. Agent Garcia asked Lopez what was 16 inside the trailer. Lopez did not respond, but continued looking down at the ground. Again, Agent
17 Garcia asked Lopez what was inside the trailer. Lopez said marijuana. Agents then took Lopez inside
18 the checkpoint and placed him in a holding cell. Agent Simone utilized his assigned canine who alerted 19 exterior of the trailer and received a positive alert. Agent Garcia cut the green seal on the trailer and 20 discovered a large quantity of green cellophane wrapped bundles containing a green leafy substance.
21 The agent opened one of the bundles and field tested the green leafy substance using a narcotic
22 identification kit. The green leafy substance tested positive for the properties of marijuana. Agents 23 Walla, Recinos, Simone, and Avitia weighed the sixty (60) packages of suspected marijuana and 24 obtained an approximate weight of 653.77 kilograms (1441.3 pounds). DEA Agents then responded to 25 the location. DEA Special Agent Huxman, as witnessed by DEA Special Agent Butler, advised Lopez 26 of his Miranda rights. Lopez stated he understood his rights and agreed to answer questions without the 27 presence of an attorney. Lopez stated he was being paid approximately $14,000 to transport the 28 marijuana from Yuma, Arizona to Ontario, California.
